

From 1st December 2009 discover Königswinkel à la carte

Over 150 services for a fun-packed holiday full of nature, culture, sport and leisure – all for free!

Königswinkel is a fairytale region in the Allgäu nestling at the foot of the Ammergauer Alps and that incorporates the towns of Pfronten, Füssen and Schwangau. With our brand new KönigsCard the Königswinkel is your oyster: from 1st December a fabulous 150 services relating to nature, culture, sport and leisure can all be explored entirely for free.

Cable cars and chair lifts, swimming pools and lakes, museums, leisure and nature, sports and walking in both summer and winter will all guarantee a fun-packed and exciting holiday whilst keeping costs in check.

The KönigsCard is a brand new all-inclusive card for unbounded fun and excitement. Unbounded in more ways than one as the card is valid even across country boundaries: it can be used in the Allgäu and the Ammergauer Alps as well as in Reutte, Austria. The card gives you free access to some 150 services: cable cars and chair lifts, swimming pools and lakes, museums, leisure and nature, sports and walking. Anyone who books a stay in one of the 70 facilities partnering the KönigsCard will receive entirely free this right royal card that will help to make their holiday even more exciting and definitely more reasonably priced than ever before. The KönigsCard, which is valid for the entire duration of stay even on the day of arrival and the day of departure, is your trump card to a wide range of services in Nesselwang, Füssen, Reutte, Oberammergau as well as a number of other places.

Why not enjoy a snow-shoe hike of the snow covered Alpispitz in Nesselwang with tennis racquets strapped to your feet? Or, if you prefer the more relaxed life, then let yourself be whisked up to the top in a cable car where you can admire the views in peace and quiet. For the more active visitor there are cross-country skiing or biathlon taster courses followed by a regenerative wallow in the Nesselwang Alpispitzbad pool.

You can save a lot in the Ammergauer Alps too, when you enjoy completely free of charge a trip on Lake Staffelsee, a ride on the Hörnle cable car or a visit to the Wellenberg leisure pool in Oberammergau. In Reutte you can learn ice-climbing, Alpine skiing, cross country skiing or enjoy an afternoon building an igloo or being swept up in the Reutte cable cars to the Hahnenkamm mountain restaurant where you can take pleasure in a walk along the well-maintained tracks and tank up on the warmth of the winter sun. In Roßhaupten card-holders can use the ski lifts free of charge whilst in Pfronten visitors can take part in a gentle winter walk. In Lechbruck the cross country tracks are free and available for visitors to try whilst in Füssen you can enjoy a trip on Lake Forggensee. In Schwangau a trip up and down on the Tegelbergbahn cable car is included whilst in Kaufbeuren you can even burn a little go-cart rubber on the All-Kartbahn track.

On arrival your host will hand you your personal copy of the tour guide including a complete list of all services covered by the card with a detailed description of each. This is when the holiday fun begins!
